Dear Parent/Carer

Jarrow School Parent Forum

At Jarrow School, we understand the importance of fostering strong and meaningful connections within our school community. We are excited to introduce our Parent Forum within the School Parent Network, and we invite you to become a pivotal member of this close-knit, engaged community.

Our Parent Forum is dedicated to creating a positive and supportive educational environment for our students. By becoming a part of this committee, you'll have a unique opportunity to actively influence the direction of our school and work closely with other like-minded parents who share your commitment to education.

Why Join the Parent Forum?

Direct Impact: The Parent Forum offers a platform for you to directly impact your child's educational experience. Your input and involvement can help shape school policies, activities, and initiatives.

Close Collaboration: By joining this Forum, you'll be able to collaborate closely with other parents, educators, and administrators. Together, we can create a strong support system for our students and share valuable resources and ideas.

Focused Initiatives: Our Parent Forum will focus on specific initiatives that directly benefit our students. Your contributions will have a visible, meaningful impact on the school community.

Community Building: Through this Forum, you can actively contribute to building a close-knit and supportive school community. Create lasting connections with others who share your commitment to your child's education.

How to Get Involved:

We are actively seeking parents who are eager to join the Parent Forum. To express your interest and become a member, please contact Mr Hannah directly at shannah@jarrowschool.com or visit our school website at <https://www.jarrowschool.com/site/index.php/about-us/parent-forum> for more details and to sign up.

Our committee is designed to be a focused and dynamic team, and we welcome parents with diverse backgrounds and experiences, aiming to gain commitment from up to 3 parents per year group. Your involvement will make a tangible difference in your child's education and in the broader school community. The Parent Forum will be looking to meet once per term

If you have any questions or require more information, please feel free to reach out to Mr Hannah at shannah@jarrowschool.com.

We are looking forward to collaborating closely with you as a member of our Parent Forum. Together, we can create a positive, nurturing, and dynamic educational environment for our students.

Thank you for your dedication to your child's education, and for considering this opportunity to actively engage within our close-knit committee.

Yours sincerely

Mr S Hannah
Head of Year 11
